INSTRUCTIONS:
- In a Word or .pdf document 2-3 (max) pages in length, please prepare responses to each of the following prompts [please simply number the responses on your sheet, as there's no need to repeat the question]
- Submit your document by Thursday, March 29, to RCLI@RCLIweb.org or to RCLI, 2101 Maywill Street, Ste. 239, Richmond, VA 23230 (no hand delivery, please)

1) Provide a list of leadership roles you currently fill (or recently filled) in your profession, church, or community.

2) Briefly explain how and when Jesus Christ began to rule as Lord and Savior in your life.

3) Share:
   - How your commitment to follow Christ is reflected in your lifestyle
   - An aspect of this commitment that remains a personal struggle for you and the steps you take to overcome/address it

4) Identify a current or past role in which you exercised (perhaps unique) leadership—either in a defined moment or over time. Briefly summarize the circumstances and describe some of the specific traits or skills this role requires/required you to practice.

5) RCLI's founders were inspired in part by Jeremiah 29:7 (NIV): "Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city…. Pray to the Lord for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper." Please reflect on this passage, its meaning, and its present relevance to our region.

6) Select an element of our region that is particularly attractive to you. Explain how you leverage, celebrate, engage with, or otherwise support it.

7) Now select a current circumstance—community, political, or societal—that challenges or concerns you. How are you responding to, engaging with others about, or seeking to reconcile (with) it?

8) What personal action, decision, achievement, direction, or next step do you hope is in place at the conclusion of and as a result of your participation in the RCLI experience?
